This project infuses Symbolik's mastery of 360 Virtual Reality and digital techniques with his smooth hypnotizing flow and, by way of conscious lyrics, his deep care for social and societal change.

The Do The Math NFT project is the first NFT musical dub plate project. The project gives a voice to NFT community contributors and lets them give recognition to their movement. Select esteemed NFT community members were invited to submit their "shout outs". Symbolik finessed the wording and performed the shout outs for limited edition version mintings of the Do The Math NFT.

Who is Symbolik:

Kwame Symbolik (also known as See K Flow) has been rhyming (Hip Hop) since the 1990s when he contributed to what's known affectionately as the "True School" era of Hip Hop. This era of Hip Hop is known for a stubborn insistence on originality, creativity, profound meaningful content, and hard hitting Boom Bap beats. This experience was formative as to who Symbolik would become as an artist. Symbolik is a founding member of the Symbolik Music Crew where he, along with Philie (The Rhyming Chef), Vandal (The Urban Camper), ManNamedWho and Shef, pioneered theatrical Hip Hop live performance in Toronto. Symbolik was a founding member of Cryptic Souls Crew. He wrote original lyrics for the song "Cryptic Souls Crew", which went on to hit musical charts on LENA's Sony

Music label release, "You Can't Stop the Bum Rush". Symbolik contributed to countless mixtapes, live shows and radio appearances.

Symbolik went on to formalize his studies in New Media Art and Interactive Media Production. Symbolik worked in a number of media fields including video game and web development. Symbolik gained a deep interest in 360 Virtual Reality creation in the mid-2010s and has been a practitioner in that capacity for over six years. Symbolik believes in creating digital works that converge and blend, while also having an impact upon the real world.

It was through these years of focusing on storytelling using 360 video and Virtual Reality that would later sprk the idea of using 360 footage to craft audiovisual experiences via the 360 Still Motion style with NFTs.

By purchasing the Do The Math NFT you are supporting a vision to elevate creativity and to shine a light on skillfully crafted and thoughtful Hip Hop. You are giving resources to underground poetic Hip Hop that is polished, accessible and in your corner.
